ADVANTAGE CLOUD™ Cloud 4

Installation instructions for iOS (Apple iPhone/iPad)

PREFACE

In order to access Compulink’s Advantage Cloud services, a Remote Desktop application with Gateway settings is required. Compulink requires the use of Windows App Mobile (previously called Microsoft Remote Desktop) App for iOS mobile devices.

Windows App Mobile

Download and install Windows App Mobile rom the Apple’s App Store

- If you already have this app installed, skip this section
- Visit Apple’s App Store and locate the Windows App Mobile
- Download and install the application

Quick and detailed setup instructions are provided below.

Quick Setup - Cloud Setup for mobile Devices – (For advanced users):

If you are familiar with advanced Remote Gateway access, configure the application with the settings below. For step by step instructions, go to Detailed Instructions.
